

Amy Kemp Choir

Contributed by Web master
Wednesday, 12 May 2004
Last Updated Friday, 08 September 2006

The story behind the Amy Kemp Choir: Amy loved music, attended all choir practices, had her own choir book, and always sang along with us at practices. She was the exceptional daughter of congregation members Flora and Marvin Kemp. That's why we named the choir "The Amy Kemp Choir." She was our biggest fan. She passed on earlier this year. There is a brass plaque on the wall behind the Choir, in Amy's memory. May God Bless her, as she blessed us.